

NAMI Keystone Pennsylvania
CONNECTION SUPPORT GROUP
FACILITATOR TRAINING
Friday, June 1 & Saturday, June 2
105 Braunlich Drive, Pittsburgh, PA

Applications can be downloaded at www.namikeystonepa.org

There is no cost for the training or supplies. A light breakfast, lunch, and snack will be provided on both days. Dinner will be on your own. Travel and accommodations are not included. Hotel information provided upon request. Applicants are required to submit an application and participate in a screening process by local Connection Support person. Space is limited and training may be filled before the application deadline.

You could be a great CONNECTION
facilitator if you:

- are an individual living with a mental health diagnosis
- can commit to facilitating a support group for one year
- are or are willing to become a NAMI member
- work well with a partner (each group is led by two facilitators)
- are interested in sharing information and providing a welcoming environment to all who face the challenges of living with a mental illness

NAMI Connection Support Groups provide a safe and confidential space to find hope and develop relationships.

SPACE IS LIMITED!

Applications will not be accepted after
Monday, May 7, 2018

For an application please contact:

What is a NAMI CONNECTION Support Group?

NAMI Connection Recovery Support Groups are free, peer-led support groups for adults living with mental illness. NAMI Connection groups are led by trained facilitators living in recovery themselves and are designed to connect, encourage, and support participants using a structured support group model.
